bible verse that says mind your own business: Enemy Under Our Roof Johanna M. W. F. Lemke, 2024-03-18 Riveting, inspiring, and informative, Johanna's often graphic memoir, Enemy under Our Roof, is based on the author's experiences in war-torn Hengelo, the Netherlands in World War II. From nights of terror spent in the cellar during air raids to the dreaded razzias, when friends and neighbours are taken away to the camps, readers will be spellbound as they are transported back to 1940's Europe. Told through the eyes of young Cobie, the narrative adopts an innocence that stands in stark contrast to the realities of war. When hordes of Nazi bombers invade the Netherlands, Cobie's peaceful, orderly world is turned upside down. Gradually she must learn to cope with fear, loss, cruelty, and despair. As she matures, she tries to make sense of the horrors of war and her Christian faith - a faith she maintains amid disillusionment and questioning. Her most trying experience occurs when a Nazi officer billets himself in her home by force, and she is confronted with issues of hatred and forgiveness. She must battle both the enemy without and within, uncovering valuable truths in the process. Throughout the ordeal she is sustained by her older brother's sense of humour, her faithful friends, and the love and courage of her parents, who keep hope alive until the long-awaited day of liberation.

bible verse that says mind your own business: Traditions of the Bible James L. KUGEL, James L Kugel, 2009-06-30 James Kugel's The Bible As It Was (1997) has been welcomed with universal praise. Here now is the full scholarly edition of this wonderfully rich and illuminating work, expanding the author's findings into an incomparable reference work. Focusing on two dozen core stories in the Pentateuch--from the Creation and Tree of Knowledge through the Exodus from Egypt and journey to the Promised Land--James Kugel shows us how the earliest interpreters of the scriptures radically transformed the Bible and made it into the book that has come down to us today. Kugel explains how and why the writers of this formative age of interpretation--roughly 200 B.C.E. to 150 C.E.--assumed such a significant role. Mining their writings--including the Dead Sea Scrolls, works of Philo and Josephus and letters of the Apostle Paul, and writings of the Apostolic Fathers and the rabbinic Sages--he quotes for us the seminal passages that uncover this crucial interpretive process. For this full-scale reference work Kugel has added a substantial treasury of sources and passages for each of the 24 Bible stories. It will serve as a unique guide and sourcebook for biblical interpretation.

bible verse that says mind your own business: Through the Bible Zac Poonen, 2016-06-01 This monumental work of 1024 pages is a result of Zac Poonen's personal walk with God and his personal study of the Bible for over 50 years. This is NOT a 'theological' study but a 'Life application' study. Before studying God's Word, we must understand why God gave it to us. It is possible to study the Bible for the wrong reasons - and I think a lot of Christians do just that. We must study the Scriptures for the same purpose that God gave it. When I was considering this study through the whole Bible, and was trying to look into the heart of God, the verse that came to my mind was: God so loved the world that He gave His Son, that whoever believes in Him should never perish. (John 3:16). The primary purpose with which God gave us the Scriptures was that all people might know that He loves them so intensely that He sent His Son to save them from the grip of sin and bring them into fellowship with Him. In God's heart there is a great desire that no one should be ruined by sin and perish. This commentary on all 66 books of the Bible shows that every single book of the Bible is interesting and has a message for us today. It deals with key aspects of the Christian life and speaks more to the heart than to the head. Let us keep that in mind as we study God's Word. Even if there are matters in the Word that we cannot fully understand, let us pray, Lord, we want to understand Your heart, even if we don't understand the meaning of everything in Your Word. We must pray as we study the Scriptures that we will understand what is in the heart of God. We can get so taken up with little details as we study, that we miss seeing the heart of God. God reveals His heart in His word. But God's purpose does not stop there-just like the construction of a building does not stop with laying the foundation. We read in 2 Timothy 3:16,17 God breathed into this book, exactly as He breathed into Adam. If God had not breathed into Adam, Adam would have been just a pile of dust; and any book that God has not breathed into is also a pile of dust. God's Word has been given to us: To teach us, to show us the right path. To reprove us and rebuke us. We need strong rebukes to be preserved in the pathway of godliness. To correct us when we go astray, to direct us into the right path. To train us in righteousness. It is a training manual. So we see that God's Word has been given to us to change our character, so that we can become godly men and women. The ultimate goal is that the man of God may be adequate - perfect and complete. Like a glass of water filled to the brim, our character is to be rounded off, balanced and complete. We are to be anointed and equipped to serve God, so that we can do every good work that God has planned for us. That is the purpose of Scripture. So if you study the Bible, you must study it for these reasons. The truths that God reveals in His Word can never be boring, because Jesus is never be boring. If we walk with our Lord and listen to Him, our hearts will burn within us - because we will see the glory of Christ in the Word.

'Walking Together' reveals that church discipline was a ministry that was very important to earlier believers, and that the modern church has abandoned it to her own detriment. It is a clarion call for individuals and churches to come back to this vital but long-neglected aspect of congregational and personal life. By doing so, churches can be healed and interpersonal relationships can be restored.
