prajavani kannada news paper in kannada language: Rama Bhima Soma: Cultural Investigations into Modern Karnataka Srikar Raghavan, CULTURAL ENQUIRY AND LITERARY EXPLORATION, A HISTORY OF POLITICAL ACTIVISM AND OF SOCIAL AND CULTURAL MOVEMENTS—THIS IS A COMPLEX, NUANCED AND OPEN-MINDED INVESTIGATION INTO MODERN KARNATAKA. Karnataka is one of India's most diverse states, as rich in literary and cultural traditions as it is in democratic struggles and political churns. The twentieth century witnessed the birth of a modern Kannada renaissance, accompanied by the emergence of a powerful social conscience. One young man's desire to explore this vibrant historical backyard, born out of a feeling of being linguistically unmoored, compounded by worries over an increasingly opaque political direction, leads to an ambitious—no, audacious—attempt to unpack the region's social and cultural histories. Rama Bhima Soma is an enterprise of translation and rediscovery, packed with stories and conversations. The life and times of legends like Kuvempu and Shivaram Karanth; the fall of Socialism and the rise of the Hindu Right; the intellectual ruminations of U.R. Ananthamurthy, D.R. Nagaraj and M.M. Kalburgi; the wildly popular television serials of T.N. Seetharam and the community-centred one-woman theatre shows of Du Saraswathi; a brief history of Naxalism in Karnataka and glimpses of other complicated legacies of the 1970s' Left—the book explores a dizzyingly wide sweep of Karnataka's contemporary history, seeking, above all, to forge new connections and begin fresh conversations. Marshalling a diverse range of literary and scholarly resources, framed through biographical sketches and immersive reportage, Srikar Raghavan's genre-bending work of narrative non-fiction reanimates some pivotal moments in the making of modern Karnataka. The result is a sizzling dish of ideas rescued from the deep freeze of historical amnesia.

prajavani kannada news paper in kannada language: Political Campaigning in Digital India Anil M. Varughese, Holli A. Semetko, 2024-06-28 This book provides a conceptual toolkit to understand the changing technologies and dynamics of political campaigning in India. Examining political campaigning and party strategies across many Indian states, with special attention to regional politics, histories, cultures, social and technological contexts, the book discusses the potential impacts of campaign strategies on electoral outcomes. Political campaigning reached a tipping point with millions of social media users engaging online with family and friends, political issues, parties and candidates in India's 2019 parliamentary election. Although India's political parties had been working with consultants and professional advertising agencies for decades, by 2019, millions of first-time voters as well as older voters were microtargeted with campaign messaging by parties and their affiliates, including frequent misinformation from unknown sources supporting one party or another. Filling a key gap in political communication research on election campaigns in digital India, the chapters in this book capture how political campaigning is important for the electoral fortunes of political parties in India's diverse regions and states. This book will appeal to students, scholars, and practitioners in political communication, public administration, and political consulting, as well as anyone interested in data-driven political campaigning. It will also be an invaluable reading for those interested in South Asian studies. This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture.

prajavani kannada news paper in kannada language: Globalization and Communication

Policy in India B.P. Mahesh Chandra Guru, H.K. Mariswamy, 2014-01-01 Communication policy formulation in the age of globalization is a widely debated and discussed subject of our times. The communications media have grown commendably over a period of time. The media in India continue to be class media rather than the mass media. The Indian media have not incorporated the features of social responsibility theory, participation theory and development theory in letter and spirit in the age of globalization. Scholars have noted that globalization has impacted the media services in India and abroad. There are advantages and disadvantages of globalization with reference to media management in India. But, the disadvantages outweigh the advantages according to the empirical evidence. The present work emphasizes that it is imperative to formulate a national communication policy at this juncture of entry of foreign media, invasion of satellite channel, present pluralistic media culture, privatization of media, commercialization of media and so on. India needs a communication strategy which should be considered as a sub-system of the processes of governance and development at various levels.
